Information about the COBRA Register and COBRA

COBRA REGISTER

The COBRA register is an official City publication. The COBRA register acts as a temporary supplement to the Code of Baltimore Regulations Annotated. Any change to the text of regulations published in COBRA must first be published in the COBRA Register.

CODE OF BALTIMORE REGULATIONS ANNOTATED (COBRA)

COBRA is the official compilation of all regulations issued by agencies of the City of Baltimore. The COBRA Register serves as COBRA's temporary supplement, publishing all proposed changes to regulations.

INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE

Incorporation by reference is a legal device by which a document is made part of COBRA by formal reference. The text of the incorporated document will not appear in COBRA, but the provisions of the incorporated document are enforceable as a COBRA regulation. Documents incorporated by reference will appear in the COBRA Register with a notice designating it as a document incorporated by reference.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THE REGULATION PROCESS

Baltimore City residents may participate in the process by which City regulations are proposed, adopted, amended, or repealed by submitting data or opinions on proposed regulations to the promulgating agency (see "Opportunity for Public Comment" section on the notice page for all proposed regulations contained in the COBRA Register).

TITLE 05 DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Subtitle 01 LICENSE AND TAXATION REGULATIONS

CHAPTER 01 PARKING TAX – FACILITATORS

Authority: City Code, Article 28, §22-8

05.01.01.01

.01 Scope.

This chapter establishes rules and regulations that govern the taxation of parking spaces in Baltimore City.

05.01.01.02

.02 Definitions.

A. In this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated.

B. Terms Defined.

- (1) “Administrative fee” means a cost charged by a facilitator in connection with the reservation of a parking space within Baltimore City.
- (2) “Bureau of Revenue and Collections (BRC)” means the Baltimore City Department of Finance Bureau of Revenue and Collections.
- (3) “City” means the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.
- (4) “Facilitator” has the meaning stated in City Code Article 28, §22-1(c).
- (5) “Operator” has the meaning stated in City Code Article 28, §22-1(f).
- (6) “Parking” means the occupation of a legally available space by a vehicle in a parking facility in exchange for a fee.
- (7) “Parking facility” has the meaning stated in City Code Article 15, §12-1(b).
- (8) “Tax” means the Parking Tax provided for in City Code Article 28, §22-2.

05.01.01.03

.03 Tax Imposed.

A. In General.

The City shall impose a tax of 20 percent on the full cost related to parking at a parking facility, including a fee or a combination of fees related to:

- (1) Parking a vehicle;
- (2) A reservation for parking a vehicle through a facilitator;
- (3) Service; or
- (4) Convenience.

B. The Department shall ensure the tax imposed is:

- (1) Valued in money, without regard to whether the compensation related to parking is received in money in another form, including:
 - (a) A credit; or
 - (b) Exchange of:
 - (i) Property; or
 - (ii) A service; and
- (2) Determined without a deduction for an administrative fee.

05.01.01.04

.04 Collection.

A. In General.

The operator or facilitator shall collect the tax on the full amount of the cost that it imposes on its customer in connection with parking.

B. Credit.

If an operator or facilitator offers a credit to a customer for the privilege of parking, then the operator or facilitator shall ensure the amount of credit offered is included in the operator or facilitator's receipts only when a payment is made.

C. Advance Payment.

If an operator or facilitator requires advance payment for the privilege of parking, the operator or facilitator shall remit to BRC the parking tax on the return for the month the payment was received.

05.01.01.05

.05 Remittance.

A. In General.

- (1) The entity that collects the parking fee, whether a facilitator or operator, shall assume full responsibility for remitting the taxes owed in connection with parking.
- (2) If the facilitator is the entity that collects the tax on behalf of the operator, then the facilitator shall assume full responsibility for the remittance to BRC of the taxes owed in connection with the parking fee or combination of fees on behalf of the operator.

B. Remittance and Filing.

- (1) A facilitator and an operator shall register with the BRC by providing BRC with a completed Parking Tax Account Registration Application.
- (2) Upon completing registration with BRC, a facilitator or operator shall contact BRC via telephone at 410-361-9690 to:
 - (a) Remit the tax; and
 - (b) File the required monthly return.
- (3) A facilitator or operator shall file the return required by B(2)(b) of this regulation even in an instance where the reported receipts amount to zero.

TITLE 14
DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
Subtitle 03 RIGHT OF WAY
14.03.06 CEREMONIAL STREET SIGNS

Notice of Final Action

On August 28, 2026, the Mayor's Office repealed Chapter 06 Ceremonial Street Signs under COBRA 14.03 RIGHT OF WAY. This action was initiated upon a determination by the City Solicitor's Office that Chapter 14.03.06 was not subject to the Administrative Procedure Act, General Provisions Article, Title 4.

Effective Date: August 28, 2026
